Big Brothers Big Sisters Déjà Vu, Sponsored by Van Horn Law Group, Nets $292,830

Five hundred guests – sporting exceptionally enormous hair, over-the-top sequined attire, gregariously loud makeup and Elton John-like platforms – traveled back in time to the excesses of Studio 54 at The Seminole Hard Rock Hotel & Casino Déjà Vu gala. Déjà Vu, sponsored by Van Horn Law Group, raised $292,830 in support of Big Brothers Big Sisters of Broward County.

“We pulled off a successful, sold-out gala, thanks to all of our amazing supporters, including Van Horn Law Group,” said Ana Cedeño, president and CEO of Big Brothers Big Sisters of Broward County. “The recreation of Studio 54, the world’s most iconic discotheque, combined with the performance of 80s dance-music royalty, Exposé, made for a fabulous evening.”

Exposé, one of the most successful girl groups of all time, burst onto the music scene in the 80s with more Top 10 hits from a debut album than any other artist. The Exposé trio, Gioia Bruno, Ann Curless and Jeanette Jurado, performed chart-topping songs including Seasons Change, Come Go with Me and Let Me Be The One, among others, culminating with fan favorite, Point of No Return.

In addition to the pop beat of Exposé, Déjà Vu featured the ever-popular Shane Duncan/All Access Band, who played the top hits from the 80s to today. Déjà Vu, co-chaired by Alyssa Lovitt of I LOVE-ITT EVENTS and Susan Renneisen of The Seminole Hard Rock Hotel & Casino, also recognized honorees who are huge supporters of Big Brothers Big Sisters of Broward. They included: Kristi Krueger, Child Advocate of the Year; Florida Panthers, Visionary Corporation of the Year; and Coleen Sterns Leith, Champion for Children.

The recognition of these upstanding community members at Déjà Vu was made possible by the financial supporters of the event. In addition to Van Horn Law Group, sponsors included: Marquis Sponsor Seminole Hard Rock Hotel & Casino, sponsors; Tina Turner Title Sponsor Publix Super Markets Charities; Production Sponsor Sixth Star Entertainment; Diana Ross Diamond Sponsors JM Family Enterprises and Ultimate Software; Elton John Platinum Sponsors PCA and Wells Fargo; and Grace Jones Gold Sponsors Apotex, Broward Health, Comcast, Crowe and Gables Engineering.
