Bankruptcy Attorney Chad Van Horn Serves as Instructor for a Palm Beach County Bar Association Continuing Legal Education Course

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla., July 25, 2016 – Bankruptcy Attorney Chad Van Horn recently took part as an instructor for a Palm Beach County Bar Association Continuing Legal Education Course. The topic: “The New Bankruptcy Forms Petition, Schedules and SOFAs.” Van Horn focused on pre-filing review issues and the intake process.

Attorneys and paralegals attended the class and received Continuing Legal Education credit for the course.

The new federal bankruptcy forms are part of the government’s forms modernization project. The forms are meant to be easier for debtors to understand and complete, and designed to assist the bankruptcy process in the courts.

In the community, Van Horn is very active, as he was recently honored by Legal Aid Service of Broward County for contributing more than 100 pro bono service hours in 2015 with Broward Lawyers Care. Earlier this year Van Horn was named Big Brother of the Year for 2016 by Big Brothers Big Sisters of Broward County.
