Chad Van Horn, Esq., who was named "Man of the Edge" at last year's LittleBig GlamSlam Fashion Show, will defend his title at the Big Brothers Big Sisters of Broward County event, a fabulous evening of fun, fashion, glamour and glitz, which last year raised $55,000 for Big Brothers Big Sisters' BankUnited Legacy Scholarship Fund. Van Horn will take to the runway with Little Brother Desmond on July 19 Bahia Mar Beach Resort Fort Lauderdale Beach.

"This event is such fun – but even more important – it benefits a tremendous organization," said Van Horn, incoming vice chair of the Big Brothers Big Sisters of Broward board of directors. "I am deeply connected to the Big Brothers Big Sisters not only because I have mentored Dez for the past five years, but also because I personally understand how important male role models are to young men coming up in this world."

While Van Horn competes for "Man on the Edge," women models will take to the stage in the hopes of being named "Woman on the Verge." The event, emceed again this year by WPLG Local 10 reporter and former Big Sister Kristi Krueger, will feature a full runway fashion show in front of an audience of 200-plus guests, hors d'oeuvres, cocktails and entertainment by Heroes of Hip Hop. Fashions will be provided by Adrianna Papell, Cubavera, Loudmouth Apparel, and more. VIP tickets are $150 and general admission is $75.
