Big Brothers Big Sisters of Broward Names Board Leadership

John Corrado named chair, Chad Van Horn named vice chair

Big Brothers Big Sisters of Broward County's board of directors recently named the following leaders to its executive committee:

- ♦ John Corrado, Board Chair. Corrado, who retired from Xerox Corp. after 43 years, is a former Big Brother who has served on the organization's board of directors for seven years. As board chair, Corrado said he "hopes to continue to ensure children in the Big Brothers Big Sisters program grow up to be responsible, accountable adults." He is a resident of Weston.
- ♦ Chad Van Horn, Esq., Vice Chair. Van Horn, a South Florida business leader and founding partner attorney of Van Horn Law Group, P.A., has served on the board of directors of Big Brothers Big Sisters for five years. A Fort Lauderdale resident, Van Horn also is an active supporter of Mission United and Legal Aid Service of Broward County.
- ♦ Dawn Stagliano, Secretary. Dawn Stagliano, director of government/regulatory affairs & community impact for the Florida region of Comcast, shapes and advances the company's government, public and community relations visibility. In addition to serving on the Big Brothers Big Sisters of Broward County board of directors for four years, she is actively involved with Junior Achievement of South Florida and Urban League of Broward County. She resides in Lake Worth.
- ♦ Frank Byrne, Treasurer. Byrne, a resident of Weston, has served on the Big Brothers Big Sisters' board of directors for the past 10 years. He currently holds the position of chief operating office at Westminster Academy, and is a former vice president of operations for Royal Caribbean.
- ♦ Doug Jones, Immediate Past Chair. Jones, who owns and operates Sixth Star Entertainment, has served Big Brothers Big Sisters of Broward County board of directors for the past for 20 years, including four years as board chair and four years as vice chair. He also has been actively involved in the Seminole Hard Rock Winterfest Boat Parade. He is a resident of Fort Lauderdale.
- ♦ Keith Williams, Legal Counsel. Williams, an attorney at Saul Ewing Arnstein & Lehr, served on the Big Brothers Big Sisters board from 2003 to 2010. An attorney with extensive experience working in complex trial litigation of real property, eminent domain, land use, bankruptcy, environmental, construction and tort matters, Williams' pro-bono work includes the Legal Aid Society of Palm Beach County, Inc., where he represented indigent students and clients before the School Board of Palm Beach County. He currently resides in Riviera Beach, Florida.
